THE REVIEW REVIEWS is the one magazine which the world has agreed is INDIS-PENSABLE. It will be more brilliant than ever during 1894. The readers of THE REVIEW or Reviews say that it would keep them well informed if it were the only literature printed. It is especially valuable to clergymen, professional men, farmers, and to all those who can take but one monthly. FAMOUS PEOPLE AND GREAT JOURNALS HAVE GIVEN

IT THE MOST UNQUALIFIED ENDORSEMENTS EVER RECEIVED BY A PUBLICATION:

James Bryce, M. P. Author of The American Commonwealth. "It is just what we have wanted."

Miss PrancesWillard.—"This magazine has the brightest outlook window in Christendom for ousy people who want to see what is going on in the great world."

Cardinal Gibbons.—"To the basy world who Cardinal Gibbons — "To the busy world who have not lessure to peruse the current monthlies. The Review of Reviews will be especially welcome, as it will serve as a mirror, reflecting the contemporary thought of Great Britain and America."

dianta Constitution.—"Gives as clear an idea of the history of the month as could be obtained from volumes clesewhere."

Springfield Union.—"The REVIEW OF REVIEWS is the best publication of the kind extant, and no busy man can afford to miss its monthly visits."
